So many things are done for the housewife by the food processor that she can't do many more creative things than her housewife counterparts a few years ago.

"We are not trying to say anything with the cooking program," says Mr. Baker. "We are just trying to show you how to do it."

Dialogue

"I hear you're flying to Washington, D.C. Are you planning to see the night?"

"Some people may think so. I'm going to see new lawmakers, to present them with a resolution for the country's problems."

"They should welcome you. Now that the political campaign is over, they're probably glad to see back in the ivory towers after learning it's pretty dangerous to be anywhere else."

"Well, if they pay the minimum I suggest, they will change and control all the money in the country."

"One has to do that? Very interesting. What's your idea?"

"Set up a nationwide network of power bases in every major city."

"That's it?"

"A secondary suggestion would be to abolish all military, except for motorbikes, construction workers, and football players."

"Why the professional treatment for them?"

"The mass of the business they encounter in their occupation."

With them. For instance, the business of a politician in Chicago, would have been done in some mutually acceptable arena such as Soldiers Field, Bryn Mawr, property, individual and other things would all have been self-sufficient."

"You think that the universal power players, after a few well-aimed kicks on their shins, kneecaps and other available areas, will respond their own violent feelings against their opponents?"

"You almost missed the big point they would not be wearing helmets. It may seem a little bit better to you, but after you have had a soccer a few times in a session, there is a strong chance your added brains will not be the original reason for dissent."

"I suppose wherever that kind of thing would be going on, triumph over having dominated the other members."

"That's not it. There's the man told me to them become professional soccer players, and believe me, you know that Eddie Adams, Mitchell and Pate, are actually $341,000 No. 10 of the Boston Club of Brazil, just after each season."

"There's a big question in my mind about your proposal. You still need lines of policy to keep the soccer in the playing field. And probably to see to it that the soccer team as it leaves. And they'd better wear helmets, too."

"I hate to say this, but it's a Muskie!"

The Rev. and Mrs. ARTHUR SIMON stepped to see on Friday, proving that blood is thicker than water. Rev. Simon is the younger brother of Sen. Paul Simon, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor of Illinois in the Nov. 5 election.

Arthur has taken a leave from his Lutheran parish in New York City where he serves as pastor in a suburban district on Manhattan's Lower East and his wife are living part in Sen. Simon's campaign.

The younger Simon is fiercely proud of the politician brother. This is the sixth campaign trail for Senator Simon, and his brother has been with him in some manner in every one. The record stands at five victories and no defeat for the Simon brothers. "I'm here to meet as many voters as I can, and I'm interested in their and his interest in constantly improving the ability of our state government to better serve its citizens—all its citizens. I just hope that Paul's record of independence and Prosperity Volunteers for Success-Sparkman, write Mayor Daley a stinging letter on his handling of affairs during the Democratic National Convention."

Said Mrs. Thelma to Daley: "You have finished the State of Illinois and defeated the City of Chicago in the eyes of the world. Until your regime is complete destroyed and kept away, Cook County Democrats can never hold up their heads and I grieve myself to assist in this hypocritical effort wherever and however possible."

person. There are indications that the event this year will be attended by more than 3,000.

MRS. FREDERICK A. THIELMAN, 38, who has been prominent in Democratic campaigns in the northwestern suburbs since 1952 when she was elected to the board of directors of the Prosperity Volunteers for Success-Sparkman, write Mayor Daley a stinging letter on his handling of affairs during the Democratic National Convention.

RAY J. DE MARTELLE, 42, 1224 N. Rose, Arlington Heights, has been appointed as a Republican candidate for the position of Precinct 52 in Wheeling Township.

He follows Leighton Jorgensen, 515 W. Alexander, who has been reappointed to Precinct 52, also formerly proud to have worked in the campaign. The appointments were made by the Arlington Heights Republican Committee members.

REX W. BLUM, ARBINGTON of Russell has been appointed state chairman for the campaign of Robert A. Dwyer, the Republican who wants to be elected lieutenant governor in November. "I am intensely proud to have been working in my campaign."

He is the son of the late Rex W. Blum, a well-known businessman and experience will add immortality to my cause."

ADLAI E. STEVENSON III continues to work hard for the passage of CON-CON. In his current newsletter, Stevenson says, "The constitution is half as long as 'Gone With the Wind.' Our country is more than twice the length of the Federal Constitution."

"They really like him in the good sense of the people. Our constitution contains elaborate provisions concerning the management of the 1993 World's Fair in Chicago and special provisions to govern the taxation of judges."

Meetings with district chairmen, becoming acquainted with the services and listening to speeches has kept new faculty members busy at Harper's College this week.

An orientation program for new faculty members has been going on all week. Next week there will be two days of orientation for all faculty members.

To involve new faculty members in understanding the objective and results of a community college is the goal of the program, according to Kenneth Anderson, Dean of Instruction at Harper.

The orientation will conclude Thursday with a speech by Dr. Robert Lake, president of Harper College, and a dinner for the faculty members given by the Board of Trustees.

GOLDEN EAGLE The new Golden Eagle Restaurant on Rand Rd., Arlington Heights, is a rating rave from its customers. Katherine Erickson is a mighty member of the response to owner Jimmy Carvins.

Katherine who lives in Hill, greeted Jimmy as an old friend. She is a well-known customer of his as his former restaurant in Park Ridge.

The Spanish dress is just right for lunch and just the thing for dinner.

HOME AGAIN Dave Wagner of Mount Prospect returned recently from a business trip to Miami Beach where he attended the Conference of National Legislators.

Dave, who will be on the ballot in November, is in a hurry to return to his legislative duties in Springfield.

Everybody Come

By Catherine O'Donnell

GI Krohn, president of the Arlington Beautification Committee is urging all Arlington residents to attend the ABC meeting tonight at the Williamsburg Room at the Arlington Heights Hotel, 1111 S. Arlington Heights, Arlington Heights, IL 60005.

The council is slowly but surely making plans with the work of beautifying the village. The south side of Northview Ave. on the west end is beginning to show the results of last fall's planting. The west side of the village is being viewed with high interest.

At tonight's meeting, there will be a selection of five directors and approval will be sought for expenditures of funds available for 1968 planting. There will be reports of committee chairman and most important of all, new ideas for 1969 will be discussed.

Village residents who would like to see beautification ideas put to work are again urged to attend this meeting. GI added, "We want to hear of people from all sections."

Men on the committee are Harold Bell, Elvin Byers, Gene Antennio, and Jack John. Sharon, Gerald Chapman, Neil Kooner, John Woods, Dwight Walton, Charles Hayes, Dr. Sam Quinn and Ray Johnson. This year the busy work will provide material for service to their long list. They will provide material for service to their long list. They will provide material for service to their long list.

There isn't much left in Miami Beach to show that the Republicans held their convention there, he said, except that the bellmen are still complaining about tips.

The Rogers went on to key West and stayed at Isla Monarda where they did some deep sea fishing. Young Dave caught a good sized black marlin and he did just as well.

They took five days to "moon" along home to the city. They will be home for the coming campaign.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN The League of Women Voters will kick off their annual drive for a state convention to see the American public information center at the Arlington Heights Hotel, 1111 S. Arlington Heights, Arlington Heights, IL 60005.

Chairman for the league is Mrs. Bert Thompson. The committee includes Madeline Harvey Bates, John Belford, Russell Gardner, Robert J. Miller, Lee Blaisfield and William Burroughs. Mrs. J. Hester is the public information chairman. "During our year's work include the successful fund drive for the Northbrook Community Center open to the public for the Bureau."

Their immediate goals are spreading facts to vote and know the issues on the Blue Ballot. The Blue Ballot is the November election and asking for a state convention to see the American public information center at the Arlington Heights Hotel, 1111 S. Arlington Heights, Arlington Heights, IL 60005.

Men on the committee are Harold Bell, Elvin Byers, Gene Antennio, and Jack John. Sharon, Gerald Chapman, Neil Kooner, John Woods, Dwight Walton,

Arlington's Jim Dooley Quietly Coaches Bears to Win

As the game against the St. Louis Cardinals reaches an all-time low, diligent shores on the base of the Bear staff, most notably on that of Jim Dooley. A late field goal by Mac Perreault gave the Bears a 19-17 win in the Armed Forces game Friday night.

Last Day For Races

BY RICHARD CRABB

The biggest weekend of the year at Arlington Park comes to an end this evening, marking the end of the 1968 racing season.

Mayor John Woods of Arlington Heights and Bill Shoemaker, four times winner in the Futurity at Arlington Park, chat at the Futurity Party Friday evening at the Round Table.

Shoemaker's son, Mitchell, left, is talking with Mrs. Woods. On Saturday afternoon the Washington-Arlington Futurity, acknowledged to be the world's richest race, took place with 18 thoroughbreds in the contest. The race provided one of the thrills of the entire 1968 season as the long shot, Strong-Strong, edged out the previous favorite, King Emperor.

Shoemaker appeared as the party with his cane, evidence of recovery. From the accident some months ago that resulted in a broken leg, Shoemaker told the guests at the Futurity party that he expected to be recovered in time.

Wheeling's Team Set

BY DAVE GARLAND

Wheeling head football coach Jack Liljberg got his first good look at his charges in action under game conditions Friday night under the lights of Wheeling.

Friday's intra-squad "pre-season" game turned up a few pleasant surprises for the Wheeling coaching staff as well as showing a few areas where work remains to be done before next Saturday's opener at Maize South.

According to Liljberg, "We saw a lot of good things and a lot of bad things during the game. Our defense turned out to be doing a better job than we expected. They're coming along well."

"OUR STARTING quarterback Ron King put on a good show of accurate passing. Running back, Jack Buehler scored well. He had a touchdown, a 37-yard run, and was no-nonsense on extra-points, which were all true from the 20-yard line instead of the 10-yard line as usual. Buehler's kicking is very dependable inside of the 20-yard line."

Another boy, Jay Jobe did a nice job of receiving. He had six or seven pass receptions and a touchdown. John Kish, Line Luma and Kish had a lot of good things during the game. Each had one touchdown on the ground. In addition, they, Jay Lesiak, our soccer-style kicker was successful in the extra-point experiment."

LILJBERG and his assistants divided the honor among three teams for the intra-squad game while the junior-varsity made up a fourth team. The first and second varsity teams played the entire first quarter while the junior varsity played the first half of the second quarter.

Then the junior-varsity played the third quarter (and for the remainder of the first half). The third and fourth quarters were played the same as the first and second. The varsity first team did all of the scoring with 48 points on seven touchdowns, one field goal and three extra-points. No other statistics were kept on the offense.

Liljberg said, "The main reason for the scrimmage was to chart our defense to see where we have to work. We already have an idea of what we have on offense. That's pretty settled. About the only bad thing to come out of the game was that the boys didn't show the kind of zip that we expected. They're not quite in peak condition yet, but that will come in short time."

The Wildcats open up their nine-game schedule against Maize South on the road Saturday, Sept. 14. Their first home game is Friday night Sept. 20 against Palatine.

Lines Down, No One Hurt

A home trailer struck low-voltage electrical and telephone lines at Arlington Park yesterday afternoon.

Firemen and emergency utility crews worked for several hours to clear a tangled mass of the race track's parking lot to repair the damage.

Eye witnesses reported a bright electrical flash in the lines went down in a split second.

A nearby utility pole tilted under force from the impact of the truck and wires.

The impact caused a short circuit in a track area's building, causing a fire in the main, chief of the Palatine Fire Department, which arrived the scene.

The fire caused no damage to the building.

The electrical failure did not affect several nearby businesses, as all power was reported to be shut down by the fire.

No injuries were reported.

Registration Ends Oct. 7

The statement in Monday's Arlington Day that next Monday is the last day for residents of Arlington Heights to register in person.

1 Voters will be able to vote from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Lights Out!

Threat of two coin boxes from Recreation Park was reported to Arlington Heights police by Richard W. Johnson, 1111 N. Lincoln St., Arlington Heights.

Johnson said the boxes, containing about 10 in quarters, were connected to a timer that immediately shuts off lights.

Give Principals Authority Over Tuition Students

BY MERILL SANDERS

Principals now have the authority to admit tuition students to high schools in District 21.

Until now, tuition students, according to the law, could not move into the area shortly after school starts, first had to be accepted by the Board of Education.

The school boards in adjoining districts to schools, according to Dr. E. H. Gilbert, district superintendent.

The change in board policy was announced at a meeting of the School Board Monday.

Principals who can prove they will become residents of the district by the end of the semester, during which they are admitted can be accepted immediately under the new system, the board decided.

A LIST of these approved principals was submitted to the school board for approval. The first registration meeting held after they are admitted.

A Night With the Village Board: Traffic, Buses, Trees - -and Traffic

Arlington Heights officials trafficked in traffic Monday night.

Mayor John G. Woods, Village Manager L. A. Hansen and council members discussed a variety of village problems and traffic seemed to come up most often.

Among 10 topics listed for discussion by Woods was Road R.D., which the mayor tagged as a leading village problem.

He warned that the state is likely to propose an expressway through the village within a few years. It would be within one mile or other side of Road.

He suggested the village consider possible locations to discuss with the state before it is confronted with final design.

He also asked that discussions be scheduled with state and county highway officials on traffic problems on Road R.D. and the intersections of Kirkwood Rd.

Other traffic problems discussed, with no action taken, included parking on Palatine Rd. for safe access to schools and parks.

Village OKs Zoning Shift For Homes

Frank Tron of Niles will be allowed to divide a lot on Palatine Rd. into two lots although they will be zoned for single-family homes.

The decision of the Arlington Heights Board of Appeals after the Monday night vote at which no opposition was registered to the proposal.

A request from Bill Cook Buick for a variance to allow additional use to its building at Euclid and Northwest Ave. was denied.

The auto agency's owners want to build a 360-38000 dollar addition in an area now used for parking.

raided right-of-way and on the side of buildings to be torn down in the central business district and the possibility of bus service to the village.

Hansen said discussions have been held with a bus company but the principal drawback is that the equipment and drivers necessary to handle rush-hour demands would be idle during the day.

OTHER TOPICS discussed in the two-hour session were: —Road control—Hansen said the Board of Directors will meet Sept. 18 to draft a request for federal funding of 25 to 30 miles for water control funds for water control.

A meeting will be held Sept. 15 in Wheeling to discuss handling water control funds, including problems on McDonald and Buffalo creeks. Trustee George Berlingham, delegated to represent Arlington Heights.

—FIRE STATIONS—Foundations and funding are in a new South Side station, but choice of a site for a North Side station is delayed pending the outcome of annexation moves by Buffalo Grove.

—Tree replacement—Hansen said about 122 donated elm trees have been removed from the village.

Bridge Detour Work to Begin

The construction of a bridge carries Butterfield Road over Interstate 90 near Oak Grove Village will begin Monday at a cost of $1,145,000, according to Norbert J. Johnson, director of the Village Department of Public Works and Buildings.

The project is to be completed by the end of Oct. 1, 1969.

Construction of the detour road began on Monday and traffic will be diverted to the detour in October.

The two span steel girder bridge will include grading and drainage facilities, Johnson said.

Rand School Work Starts Tomorrow

Groundbreaking for Rand Junior High School in Arlington Heights will begin tomorrow morning at 8:30.

The District 21 Board of Education, will preside. There will be a meeting of the community leaders including Mayor John G. Woods.

Construction of the building will begin immediately. It is to be completed by September 1969 when it is expected to open.

village property this year. He said there was a smaller loss to the District 21 than the city. Planning of replacement trees will begin in October.

—Bus hour—Village officials will take a bus tour of municipal and private projects Oct. 26. Details and an itinerary will be developed later.

—Liquor license—Mayor Woods said the village board that would be forwarding a liquor license application to the state.

—Clean streets—The mayor complained of debris and other litter in front of some businesses.

It was reported that about

1,000 Boy Scouts will take to the streets Nov. 16 to pick up trash throughout the city.

—PROSPECT HEIGHTS—Woods asked Hansen to get cost estimates on updating a village study of annexation in the Prospect Heights area. The village manager said he sees no need to update the study until there is a demand for annexation. Woods asked Hansen to have a specific report.

—YOUTH COUNCIL—Woods said he would the village officials to have a meeting with the Arlington Heights Youth Council and the new president, William Burroughs, Jr., to discuss the council's "exact role."

Office Building Protests Bring Change in Plans

A hearing on a proposed office building, which would block his view of sunset and cut off western breezes.

His chief complaint was the building's height, which would cause a variety of office, would generate additional traffic on already busy streets and endanger children in the area.

More than a dozen residents appeared at the meeting.

ONE RESIDENT complained that the building would block his view of sunset and cut off western breezes.

Trustee John White, a committee member, said a proponent owner is entitled to reasonable use of his land.

The committee chairman, Francis W. Palmer, said, "I'm trying to create too much on the land. He predicted such a building would not be economical and said the office would attract few customers because of congestion and parking problems."

When Smith indicated a willingness to modify his plans, the committee agreed to delay action.

Planning for the siren began in January, Benson said.

Reaching Far Back

Fashions from the Attic

Some fashion authorities are predicting the new fall styles. Victorians while others are digging from the "attic" for Silurian styles from the Victorian era inspired by Miss Jander's wardrobe. "Sart" offered combinations have been influenced by Barbra Streisand's costume for "Funny Girl." Even returns "The African Queen" have brought demands for prim Victorian high-necked blouses, according to SEVENTEEN Magazine. Other nostalgic fashions include "tea party" dresses with long sleeves, sweaters with ruffles and flared voluminous pants in pastel colors. Some are as rich as to back into the closet that one almost loses the clothes and is left with a pile of silk stockings. Vests are back and so are gathered skirts!

Mixed or matched these are predicted for both daytime and evening wear with cool pastel jackets and slacks available. The latest of fashions will be blouses, delicate on sweaters, bougie robes and flared voluminous pants in pastel colors. Other prominent Victorian or Elizabethan touches will be Empire waists, yards of lace trimmings, ribbons and leg-of-mutton sleeves.

And remember the square neckline. The fligons were on their backs in "Early American" colors of copper, pewter, silver or peacock. 37 ELEGANT SHADES carrying the antique look into tomorrow for fall. Henry will also be taking on complementary notes of copper, pewter and silver.

Cards Practice 'Backwards' for Front-Running Results

BY CURT WILSON

Arlington High School coach Bob Walker's squad has been practicing its cards in a way that experts a run for its money in the Mid-America State League action. The team followed a rather unusual pattern of practice in that offense was not important part of any practice and they are not even switching to a forward defense-oriented practice until the last 10 minutes of the session, according to Walker.

THE ARLINGTON variety defense that Friday afternoon in an intersquad scrimmage last Friday night. The game was Walker and his staff's choice to play all candidates and evaluate them. The last 10 minutes of the game was impressive with 15 returning lettermen and a wealth of experience. Walker said, "I want to see how they do in a real game. I want to see how they do in a real game. I want to see how they do in a real game."

SOMERS HELD down the spot last year, but, according to Walker, his improved greatly on last year's performance. The team was held down by the defense. The team was held down by the defense. The team was held down by the defense.

Grenadier Cross-Country Squad Understaffed; Begin Season Meets Today

BL Grove's cross-country team, like its football team, is newly understaffed this year for the upcoming season. The Grenadier cross-country coach, Bob Dooley, said that his team has only 20 candidates out for the sport on all levels. Twelve are running in the varsity level and eight are sophomores.

Leading the Grens this year are the cross country letters from last year. Bob Dooley, Wayne Wells and Tom Swartz provide most of the experience on the team. One junior letterman, Jerry Braun, a senior who missed competition last year because of illness, will help to boost the team.

Dooley, whose squad last year finished the season with a respectable 7-2 record, said that he again expects an "average" team, and thanks Jim Groves' coaching to improve would be one of the team's goals.

For today's meet, Ron said, "Make West is always tough, but it'll be a close one."

Students Interview Paul Simon

BY RICHARD CRABE

Sen. Paul Simon of Troy, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, repaid state revenues and urban problems as the great issues facing Illinois in 1968.

He also says the Illinois 18-year-old should have the right to vote, the U.S. is moving toward the right direction, the Vietnam war and that his opponent, Robert Dwyer, is an honorable man but not well qualified to be lieutenant governor.

These are some of the highlights of an interview granted to a panel of students from South Junior High School in Arlington Heights.

Members of the southeast suburban student panel were Gary Ledyard, Jill D'Angelo, Steve Pollard and Cindy Bunting.

Here are some of the questions and Simon's answers:

BIG PROBLEMS—Steve Pollard asked, "What do you think are the major problems faced by our state in 1968?"

Simon: "Revenue and urban problems."

DUTIES IF ELECTED—Cindy Bunting asked, "Exactly what are the duties of the lieutenant governor in Illinois?"

Simon: "They are set forth in the state constitution and the statute."

"For instance, the lieutenant governor is the presiding officer in the state senate."

"Is the acting governor whenever the governor is not of the state?"

"Samuel H. Shapiro, during the last year that he was lieutenant governor, served as acting governor for 101 days. He had to handle prison riots, anthrax disorders and just about every kind of emergency you can imagine."

"In addition, the lieutenant governor is by statute member of certain state commissions."

District 25 Enrollment Hits 24th Consecutive Record

Ongoing enrollment in Arlington Heights School District 25 reached a record 65,295, an increase of 443 over last year.

The figures, announced by Superintendent James H. Strome, indicate that enrollment is continuing to grow at a rapid rate.

Entire Republican Field Due At Sept. 28 Winners Circle?

BY RICHARD CRABE

The entire Republican primary and county candidate lists for the Nov. 3 election, plus U. S. Rep. Donald Rumsfeld and Sen. Everett Dirksen, are expected to appear at the "Winners Circle" dinner, a Republican organization's dinner, which will have an opportunity to talk directly to the candidates.

Scholarships designed to confirm reports that a national GOP leader, that Sen. Dirksen, would attend, had not ruled out such a possibility.

Acceptance had been made earlier from William H. Sullivan, U. S. Rep. Robert Dwyer, candidate for lieutenant governor, and William Harris, candidate for U. S. House.

Dick Hall of Mount Prospect, president of the Illinois new Republican Club, said it is "confident that every man and woman who can be expected to win will be at the dinner."

Hostesses will recruit candidates and special guests to the tables with more time allowed for informal conversation. The buffet dinner will be served from 7:30 to 8:30.

MRS. RONALD SCHERRER of Mount Prospect is in charge of the floor show to be presented by members of the Illinois Republican Organization.

It will be a collection of political news and views, said Mrs. Scherrer.

Deaf Students Enroll in Special Hersey Class

High School District 214 has in this area for all students regular classes with other students.

The program will include lessons in lip reading, sign language and vocal speaking.

Six students have enrolled in the center. They will attend class in the resource room.

Recruiting in Schools

A QUOTE FROM DEAN HERSEY: "The professional business of the school is to recruit for the general good of the entire school."

Hersey, who has the responsibility of the school, said that the school is not only a place of learning but also a place of socialization.

Area Men Set Positions With Bar Assn.

Two Arlington Heights men have been appointed to positions with the Illinois State Bar Assn.

James C. Davis, 719 W. 21st St., has been made vice chairman of the Labor Union Council, William D. Smith, 22 N. Regency, has been appointed to the Local Union Council of the American Bar Assn.

Sections keep alert for the latest news of the Bar Assn. and the regional and national changes in the Bar Assn. and the regional and national changes in the Bar Assn.

schools have opened to a record enrollment. The peak increase was 602 students in 1967.

STRONG SAID it is too early to tell if the increase will hold the 5 per cent increase for a 125,000 advance on next year.

If District 25 enrollment is at least 5 per cent greater than a year ago, it will get the money during the school year and some increasing financial pressure. Otherwise the state aid would not come until next year.

The opening-day increase is about 45 per cent higher than last year's enrollment, and more pupils will come during the first weeks of the school year, Strong said.

State legislators from the northwest suburbs introduced a bill this year that would have reduced the attendance increase for the advance fund to 2 per cent. The bill was defeated.

Gov. Senet Strome said a technical error that made it useless.

District 25 opened 20 new classrooms this year in addition to the 12 new classrooms. The Ivy Ridge School has 12 new classrooms, the Dryden School has 4 new rooms and the Kensington School has 4 new rooms.

A number of new courses and teaching procedures also have been introduced.

A new music course will be started in the junior high schools, aimed at improving students' performance and teaching skills and techniques.

them to a broader appreciation of music's role in education.

Frank Dinkelman has been named District 23 science coordinator and director of the outdoor education program. He will be an adviser to teachers, supervising science education.

Teachers and administrators plan to evaluate the materials and practices in the junior high school language area. They also will investigate a "critical thinking" approach in teaching social studies on all grade levels.

Records Set, But Track Attendance Down

BY RICHARD CRABB

Arlington Park closed its season Monday. It was a year in which both attendance and wages were below 1967 levels.

Attendance for the 103 days of racing that began on May 1 was 1,638,481 for an average of 15,907 per day. The Chicago Cubs moved over the season mark as attendance this past weekend, and the Chicago White Sox are trying to achieve a half million attendance at Sox Park this season. The Arlington Park attendance for the 1967 season totalled 1,577,032, nearly 60,000 more than last year the Arlington races this season.

WAGERING, OR THE

mutual handle, for the season was $154,460,561, an average of $1,499,611 each racing day. The wagering during the 1967 season totalled $155,680,580, an average of $1,511,642 per day. Actually Arlington Park had received 600,000 of the total wagered during the year for less than two hours.

Illinois law requires that 85 per cent of the amount wagered be returned in winnings to those placing the bets. Of the 15 per cent retained by Arlington Park, half, or 7 1/2 per cent, is paid in taxes to the state. Most of the remaining 7 1/2 per cent goes to the horsemen's association and for prize money.

One record for wages was set during the season. On Labor Day a record $2,939,000 was wagered. The previous record handed for one day was $2,851,000 reported on Labor Day, 1966.

The LARGEST CROWD this season was reported on Labor Day when the park's attendance reached 34,636. The all-time crowd record is 35,007 set on Labor Day, 1962. This year's record crowd was the largest in four years.

The weather is blamed for the track's official low attendance. The weather was generally cold and unfavorable during May and early June when crowd declines were reported in 15 out of the first 18 days. August also cut into the crowd.

Lions Intent on Good Start

BY BILL PRICE

The St. Victor Lions, intent on opening the season on the right note, are eagerly looking forward to their opener with Ferris this Saturday. The team, to be played under the lights at Arlington High School, will start the first competition for the season for the players in their division, and they appear to be capable of much the same this season.

SPOTS ON The Victor got early this season. A few weeks ago appear to be a full schedule of the season. Co-captain Mary Wendell, an outstanding 200-pound center who has the speed of a scolded hen, will definitely start. Wendell was in an auto accident in the spring, but has fully recovered and appears to be headed toward another stellar season.

The middle of the scrappy Lion team is high. Gliss is quick to make both Wendell and Mark Walinski for their part in keeping the team together and bringing about the victory.

Of his two senior captains he has Jerry. Jerry is one of the two best captains that the St. Victor team has ever had. They both are great ball players and are putting down a lot of time in leading the ball club a winner.

jeven who they try to make it into Gliss's side eleven. Both are almost perfect in the line and have come a long way in the pre-season practice.

SENIOR DIVISION

Shady's curtain name saw the Glens best the defending Shamrock Packers, 14-0. The first and fourth quarter touchdowns on Tim Hurley's pass interception helped set the winner's first score. Mike Raymond on a 10-yard pass from Jeff Hammon.

Raymond talked again later on a 10 yard dash and converted both extra points. Scott Dorsey ran well too and played a rugged defense and Brad Ullrich and Mike Fox. Kenny Holm grabbed two enemy tosses and Dave Riccio.

THE PACKERS scored their lone six-point play in the second half as Jimmy Hamilton slanted across from the yards out after quarterback John Knudsen completed a nice pass to Jeff Meyer. Defensive Jack Keyser, and Mark Vandoren.

The Bears and Cardinals resumed their rivalry in a tough game that featured numerous good runs and pass interceptions but ended in a 0-0 deadlock. Quarterback Terry Chewin ran the Bears.

Below-The final racing bill Monday at Arlington Park featured four exciting races and a total attendance of 34,636. The all-time crowd record is 35,007 set on Labor Day, 1962. This year's record crowd was the largest in four years.

Right-While attempting to find a receiver, the Cardinals intercepted Terry Chewin's split off Cardinal defensive back Pat Fritzelis.

WHO IS A&P?

A&P is people... 135,000 loyal, dedicated people... people who know and believe in what their company stands for.

For more than a century, A&P has been fortunate to have such people... many of whom started as teenagers and have profited from our policy of promoting from within the company.

We think our A&P people are special. They know and believe in the basic philosophy of A&P: to bring the most good food, to the most people, for the least amount of money... and to CARE about what we sell and how we serve you.

We are proud of our A&P people... all 135,000 members of the A&P family. They are A&P. Without them, we wouldn't have you. Without you, we wouldn't be in business!

Weller Creek Project Still Alive; Governor Sets Decision Deadline

(Gov. Samuel Shapiro today set a deadline of two weeks for the release of the $14 million federal cost share for the Weller Creek flood control project. Shapiro said he would not like it to get up for a decision until the project is well along.)

The governor said he hopes that the contractor will get some bad news. "I don't want to commit to this project and not like it to get up for a decision until the project is well along," he said. "I like to think," he said, "that the contractor will go along with us by keeping his bid open. I want nothing to disturb this project and I don't want to get it up for a decision until the project is well along."

Shapiro said that the decision might be made even sooner, maybe within a week. "The release order is still on my desk," he said, "and it has top priority."

Des Plaines Mayor Herbert Behrer, who had spoken with the governor earlier yesterday, said that Shapiro's statement is a "helpful sign."

"I'M CERTAINLY going to remain hopeful and get some bad news," Behrer said. "When the governor tells me that the bill is on his desk and has not been turned down, I have to remain hopeful."

Shapiro said that he "realizes how important this project is to the northwest suburbs," but said that it "must be viewed against the background of the entire financial situation."

According to Behrer, the release of the funds will do no good unless the contractor, The Construction Co. of Evanston, is willing to extend the deadline. It has set for beginning the project.

"We can get a little extension," Behrer said, "if the contractor can wait another 10 days, we might have enough time to get the money and go ahead with the project."

Highrise Abandoned In Planning

Arlington Heights Plan Commission Wednesday evening approved a new development proposal that removes what might have been the central business district's first highrise.

Instead, a second office building three stories high will be erected at the intersection of St. James and Highland streets just north of Northwest Hwy.

The change came about because of the larger parking area requirement of the new office building.

The office building now proposed will provide parking for 78 cars.

The area involved is bounded on the south by Eastman on the east by St. James. There already is a three-story office building, known as the Eastman House Office Building, on the south side of this property.

Women Voters Turn To Men For Funds

The Arlington Heights League of Women Voters started in $1,000 fund drive to help the new Orchard Country Club. Tuesday.

The league's activities are focused on two areas: to make to men work more people.

The league has worked for support of the Northwest Opportunity Center, an anti-poverty center in Rolling Meadows.

It now is working for a "yes" vote in the Nov. 3 constitutional convention referendum.

Citizens' Group, Says Neutral After Voting to Back Tax Hike

By MERILL SANDERS
District 59's School Community Council voted to support a proposed tax increase but a group of citizens says it is neutral.

Then it decided it really didn't mean it. Council members voted 16 to 12 to support the tax hike at a Sept. 21 referendum, reversing the decision of its executive board which earlier this week opposed the increase.

Because the membership vote was so close, however, another vote was taken on whether the committee should take an official stand, at all.

This motion passed, and the committee's official position remains neutral on a tax increase that its executive board opposes and its membership supports.

ALL THE VOTING came after a discussion of the tax increase during which, District 59's Donald Thomas said, the board had the authority to vote the tax without the referendum.

"We decided to hold a referendum because this board has a philosophy of public participation in tax raising," he said.

Two tens of the six-tax increase would be District 59's share of a regional center for the trainable mentally handicapped (NSSEO).

Thomas said that the school district is committed toward the NSSEO center.

Band Director Resigns
Fred O. Elliot, musical director of the Palatine High School band since 1963, has resigned his position. He will be replaced by R. G. Cook, 102 Timmerman, Schaumburg, who has been named to succeed him. Cook, who holds a master's degree in music, was director of the 5th Army Band at Fort Belvoir for many years.

Ernest Rich of 395 Lavin, Des Plaines, the council vice president, said he voted against the increase because the board did not have a plan for this building.

THOMAS replied that only District 59's six-cent increase would be used to build the NSSEO school district's tax base, a portion of which also will go to the NSSEO school district for the mentally handicapped, has been authorized by board resolution, Thomas said.

James Shoffner, 256 Park, Elk Grove Village, chairman of the district's Special Education Parents Group, spoke in favor of the increase.

Harpis College Board, 200 W. 11th, 8 p.m.

Selection might end the fighting about that slipped through the North Suburban Council on July 23 in millions of votes, but School District 25 got it a $4,000 raise. That is what repairs, including the replacement of the school's chimney above the roof line, will cost. The fighting damaged the roof, the upper interior of the building and smashed the upper part of the chimney. Principal John Bennett is inspecting the repair work.

8 Subcommittees Study Problems In District 214

A step toward the Lay Citizens' Committee's goal of studying problems in area high schools was taken Thursday night when the group voted to form nine subcommittees to consider different aspects of the growth problem facing District 214.

The subcommittees will present plans to the full group which will recommend them to the school board, explained Jack Martin, assistant to the superintendent.

"Most of the work will be done in the subcommittees," he said.

Formed at the meeting were:

- A curriculum subcommittee, to evaluate the present program, especially vocational education, and to suggest and comment on changes.
- A scheduling subcommittee, to consider the possibility of a 12-month school year or a longer school year.
- A school-community relations subcommittee, to bring together and establish communication between the school administration and the community.
- A personnel subcommittee, to study the needs of our staff and teacher organizations.
- A re-distributing subcommittee, to investigate shifting pupil load from school to school.
- A facilities subcommittee.

Crash Injuries For Women

Jacquelyn Hook, 32, Chicago, was charged with negligent driving, Wednesday, after an accident in the 200 block of Dryden, Arlington Heights.

Police reported Miss Hook's auto struck a car belonging to Ella Peterson, 204 Eastview, Patterson's auto was parked illegally in front of Kenneth J. Schep's home.

Miss Hook did a passenger, Judy Falk, of Chicago, was charged for head-on crash at Northwest Community Hospital.

Frank M. Eklinton, 512 E. Arlington, Arlington Heights was charged Wednesday with passing bad checks, after a complaint was signed by Neil Kelly, manager of Arlington Heights, where Eklinton lives.

Kelly said police Eklinton had given him several bad checks, including one for $127.00.

Paul Eklinton was charged with $12,000, by Circuit Court Magistrate Paul O'Malley, with Arlington Heights Circuit Court appearance set for September 20.

committees, to consider building new school, constructing additional to existing schools, tax revenue in per capita, and the cost of education.

"House of Representatives the study of raising the tax rate and funding better schools, the Lay Citizens' Committee has decided to consider many alternatives to the facilities problem," said Martin.

"We will also study the present program so that they can understand the needs of education."

The committee is made up primarily of representatives from city organizations such as the League of Women Voters, PTAs and chambers of commerce from the district.

However, private citizens who bring and anyone who wants to join may do so, according to Martin.

"Our present facilities were big enough for the projected 1971 enrollment," commented Martin.

"The tax rate we have now is not high enough to maintain our high school education at its present quality level."

Says He Got Bad Checks For Rent

Frank M. Eklinton, 512 E. Arlington, Arlington Heights was charged Wednesday with passing bad checks, after a complaint was signed by Neil Kelly, manager of Arlington Heights, where Eklinton lives.

AHS Will Meet Exchange Gue

Arlington High School students will meet their American Field Service (AFS) foreign exchange guests tomorrow at an all-school assembly.

The visitors are Lourdes Ferns, 16-year-old girl from Aragon, Peru, and Anni Figner, a 17-year-old girl from Madrid, Spain. Both arrived in this country late in August, in time to get settled before starting school.

Lourdes, who lives in a southern Peru trade center of 550,000 people, is visiting with the family of Donald O. Hodges, 524 S. Ridge.

Anni, a member of Arlington's variety cross country squad, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Ranz, 116 E. Orchard.

Both students are graduates of their schools at home and will start college after returning from a year in Arlington Heights.

Remains saw a lot of energy, in Angel Figueroa, from Madrid, Spain. The lady at Arlington High School, Angel, a foreign exchange student, is a member of the Arlington variety cross country squad.

An Honest Effort!
This is all our firm can offer you as a prospective job seeker. We "Have Failed to Place a Client" and will probably fail many times in the future. If despite our inability to place you, we still have your reputation for avoiding "Wid. Gloom Classes", honesty versus salesmanship, open appraisal of your realistic value in relation to our mutual advantage. We will offer but two promises: an honest effort and as avoidance of your time being needlessly wasted. If your background fails to show what can be done when in employment agency works for you instead of "for" you.

The Chicago & North Western Ry. is one of 25 railroads operating in this state which is under investigation by the Illinois Commerce Commission for "operating practices which may constitute a danger to the general public." The investigation was undertaken by the commission because there had been a sharp increase in railroad derailments among all the railroads. Responding to the general investigation The Day asked residents of Arlington Heights, Des Plaines, and Mount Prospect who ride the commuter trains: "Do you consider the North Western passenger service to be safe? If not, why?"

"I think the Northwestern is safe. The trains are safe," says Robert J. H. President, Mount Prospect.

"I'm sure it's safe," says Robert J. H. President, Mount Prospect.

"The service is fine," says Robert J. H. President, Mount Prospect.

"When I first moved to Arlington Heights the Northwestern was under construction. There has been a tremendous improvement since then. Now I take the train to work every morning and I am satisfied that it is safe," says Robert J. H. President, Mount Prospect.

"What did you say?"
"No one said so, in my face at least, but I know I am."
"You called it right-winger for saying things about the Democrats and groups like that, and now someone said I am Communist for saying unkind things about Chicago?"
"Major Richard Daley and his police department's 'over-reaction' during the Democratic Convention."
"Did you get in trouble for it?"
"Oh no. I did hear once, though, of a writer who was praised highly by everyone in town and he was called into the editor's office to explain what he was doing wrong."

"What did you say about that?"
"Well, I said that I don't agree with the Yippee and other groups who brought on the trouble, but I was not pointing out that just because a lot of people did it was all right to punish people on the street, the action is not therefore justified."
"I did show that some people agreed with Hitler's treatment of the Jews and a few people here thought he was a good man."

"The way that I was?"
"Perhaps. But the point is, we don't approve what you people just because we don't agree with them."

College Selection Guide

Caution: Schools Vary Extensively

BY ELLA MAZEL, (Part 2)

One of the outstanding mistakes made by parents in the United States is to let their children choose their own college for every year, for every budget, for every educational goal.

Initiation range from private colleges to state universities with over 50,000 students to state universities with over 50,000 students. They go from those offering a liberal arts education to those offering a technical education in such areas as engineering, architecture, and business.

Most of these, by the way, are called "junior" or "senior" colleges. They are not called "junior" or "senior" colleges. They are not called "junior" or "senior" colleges.

There are other types of programs, each of which is a separate type of institution. These include the "liberal arts" and "career-oriented" colleges. They are not called "junior" or "senior" colleges.

DONE IS CALLED "terminal" which means that the student is not going to continue his education beyond the college level. This is not a good thing to do.

With a properly chosen program, you can transfer your junior college to a senior college of a regular type.

And there's a good reason for this. It's not a good thing to do. It's not a good thing to do.

THE THREE tried to think of what they could do for the Chicago police so that they would know how much they owed their country.

They clipped in and had Police Bureau like a cake that would be enough for the 72 policemen in the 10th District and took it down to their last week.

Conrad, "They were so happy for it to do something like that that they kept thinking of it. Someone called a Chicago newspaper and they were a story about it in the paper. It was a couple of papers."

No one will ever convince that the police in Chicago are bad."

'Chinese Communist Air Power'

BY RICHARD CRABB "Chinese Communist Air Power"

Richard M. Bueschel of Mount Prospect deserves commendation as a public benefactor for his new book, S. said the western world concerned with finding peace in Asia. Bueschel's account is much more than a presentation of the basic facts on past and current Communist airpower in China.

Contained in the book is remarkable and revealing commentary on the Korean War. There is even important light thrown on the current conflict in Vietnam.

GEN. EISENHOWER, when he took over the presidency in 1953, has generally been credited with quickly ending the Korean War. He took office in January and the war was over in the air.

It should be noted that Eisenhower has steadfastly refused to accept credit for bringing the Korean conflict to a quick end, and Bueschel's new book explains why.

Time has clarified what was so foggy then, just as much of the current Vietnam war drama is shrouded in confusion. When Communism came into the war, the ground war got most of the public attention but the decision was being shaped in the air.

Within days the United Nations forces had made it clear that if China entered air space over South Korea, the UN force would attack China with everything in its arsenal, including atomic weapons. China, for its part, vowed to attack South Korea and American bases in Japan if the Chinese homeland was attacked by air.

THE NET EFFECT was to limit the area of battle in North Korea. The Chinese fought from their own base north of the Yalu River but this did not allow much fuel for combat once they got over North Korea. The Chinese had their sanctuary above the Yalu.

While never publicly claimed, in effect the United Nations air force had its sanctuary in South Korea, much closer to North Korea than the Chinese bases in the Yalu.

The UN kill rate averaged out 14 to 1. The Chinese countered by attempting to move their bases into North Korea to get an advantage.

A month after General Eisenhower had been elected and a month before he became President, the UN air force was systematically to wipe out every communist plane and every communist air installation in North Korea.

When the ground facilities of the Chinese Air Force had been virtually wiped out south of the Yalu and the Chinese air arm had been completely forced back into its Manchurian base in 1953 (almost the same week that Eisenhower took office) did the U. S. pledge of "hot pursuit" of Chinese aircraft across the Chinese border, as well as the threat of an atomic attack on Chinese cities, have true meaning.

"When the Red Chinese faced the fact they were no longer able to retaliate, truce agreements were promptly reached, and the Korean War came to an end in July, 1953."

THE PLACE in Korea was won on the battlefield. Vietnam observers please note.

Mao Tse-tung has maintained a hard line attitude toward the United States ever since the Korean War. Bueschel provides the clue when he wrote in his new book "The Red Chinese losses were staggering. While the USAF officially claimed that 841 Communist MIG-15 fighters were shot down in combat, the actual count was well over 850."

"Mao Tse-tung's own son, Mao Anying, an air-division commander of the PLAAF, was one of the first Red Chinese pilots to be downed in Korea. In 1950 Mao Anying was a great personal loss to Mao."

Bueschel says that the Cultural Revolution, with its Red Guard extremists, has removed the large but poorly trained and equipped Chinese air force as a threat to the American force in Vietnam. The engineering schools all over China were closed in 1965 and along with other schools of higher learning.

The engineering schools maintained closed for many years in the Chinese cities and the planes that have figured in a 20th American confrontation in Vietnam.

THE 1970s - well, another matter says Bueschel.

The book is so step-by-step clearly written that it can be read by a wide audience, including from junior high school to many who are 100 or more.

The book is the first kind. There are some by the U.S. Air Force, all taken in China of their shawing post. Communist leaders and of the pictures not previously published in the west.

Garage Sale
Sept. 27, 28

A garage sale is planned for Sept. 27-28 by women of the United Way Pally League of Alton Heights. The two-day sale will be held at 1503 Elm Street in Alton Heights.

Proceeds from the sale will be used by the group to provide educational opportunities for handicapped children in this area.

The group needs items of useable items. "We have only very limited space for the sale," said group leader Mrs. Fred Manning.

People have any items to donate, they may call Alton Heights at 252-5596, Harold Freeman, 254-06 or me at 255-7778. They will make arrangements to pick them up. If they are the approximate value of the items they can be arranged from their list.

Even if your house is brand new, you can't expect them to last much more than eight or 10 years if they are of galvanized metal, about 20 years if they are copper or aluminum.

And this is under normal conditions.

Gutters and downspouts should be cleaned out at least twice a year, in the spring and fall, and any other time they seem to be clogged.

GET RID OF ALL LOOSE debris, leaves, dirt, made-Spruce and cedar mulch. Push out with a garden hose. If the downspout is clogged, after running a stream of water through will clear it.

Once they are cleaned, inspect the gutters carefully. All signs of rust should be cleaned up. Use a wide brush, then sand. The inside of the gutter should then be coated with an asphalt paint, such as roof coating. If you are done to the bare metal on the outside, paint with a good primer, then with house paint to match the rest of the surface. Tiny holes should be cleaned carefully. Break away all the rusted material. If spots small, the asphalt may be enough to seal it. One stick is to put a bit of butep or aluminum foil down in the wet roof coating and then give it another coat.

A MORE durable patch and one that is suitable for larger holes can be made from One-Glue cloth and resin, the sort of patching material sold for patching auto bodies. Just follow the instructions, generally soaking the fiberglass in resin and then applying it to the gutter. Smooth it to make it match the shape of the metal. One is a final coat of resin to coat all the edges.

Gutters are less likely to fill with debris and hence less likely to corrode if the pitch is a sufficient to cause the water to flow freely.

POLY water in the gutter and watch how it flows. If it remains in one spot anywhere along the gutter's length, then raise the gutter at that point. This will mean removing the hangers there.

A big help in keeping gutters free of leaves and other debris is the gutter guard. This is generally a length of wire mesh that is galvanized over the gutter's edge. Remember though that this is a one-time cost. Then, too, must be swept off now and then.

VERY important is a strainer of some sort at the top of the downspout. This will keep leaves, twigs and dirt from flowing down the downspout, clogging it and the sewer line as well.

It is especially important to have gutters clean and in good repair in the fall. Winter's ice and snow put an extra burden on them. The extra weight of such a build-up could tear them right off the house.

Gutters should be cleaned out at least twice a year.

Caulking Like Fixing A Hole in Your Wall

Anyone finding a broken window pane or a hole in the wall would repair it quickly enough.

You may have enough open joints and cracks in your home right now that equal the area of a missing pane of glass or a hole in the ceiling.

The joints around door and window frames alone might equal an opening larger than the first mentioned.

THE BEST and easiest way to seal these joints is with caulking compound. Use a good quality compound, one that will not run because it is too liquidly and yet is pliable enough to fill joints on matter how irregular.

Caulking is a putty-like material. When dry it has a plastic consistency. This is why it can expand and contract without cracking.

Properly applied it will prevent moisture from creeping in, block drafts and hold back dust films.

The easiest way to apply caulking compound is with a caulking gun. The gun has a barrel that is loaded with the caulking compound. As the trigger pushes the caulking out through a tip or nozzle that allows it to flow in a bead of the proper size and shape.

While you can buy bulk caulking to load in a caulking gun, even this slight chore has been made easier. Caulking in available in cartridge. The cartridge provides its own barrel and nozzle all loaded with caulking and ready to go.

With a cartridge you can use a simpler and cheaper gun. Instead of a full barrel the gun just provides a frame to hold the cartridge, plus a trigger and plunger mechanism.

When the cartridge is empty just throw it away. There is no cleaning up to do.

For smaller jobs you can also obtain caulking in tubes which you squeeze like toothpaste.

Caulking is generally available in white or gray. There also is a black caulking for sealing cracks on or around roofs.

Caulking can be done almost any time, except when the temperature drops below 40 degrees. Though you can also caulk before or after painting, it is preferable to do so before painting. This way you can paint over the caulking and the caulking will show.

Do not, however, attempt to paint over black caulking. This contains asphalt and it will bleed through the paint.

Keep a steady pressure on the trigger and the caulking will flow along as a slow and even pace. The event pressure will cause a small amount of paint to be pushed up the caulking.

CAULK AROUND door and window frames, doors and windows where the sill meets the window dry sill, between window sill and siding, at corners formally siding, between siding and vertical corner board, between door meets and shingles. Any sort of an corner needs it. Look for cracks and openings in any of the foundation.

If old caulking is present and in bad condition, pull it out before applying new. Clean up particles with wire brush and if you want a thorough job, wash with turpentine.

Cleaning

Put rubbing alcohol to work to bring up brightness into your paint. Small amount applied with cloth will bring a new shine to chrome trim, mirrors or enameled metal.

Solded candles can be cleaned with rubbing alcohol simply by rubbing the gently. A more vigorous application of alcohol will remove the white residue left by the candles.

5 Baird & Warner Offers RESET

Finding a home in Chicagoland can be a lengthy, tiresome and expensive job... especially for the out-of-towner transferred here by his company. But it doesn't have to be... with RESET - Baird & Warner's Real Estate Service for Employee Transfers.

RESET offers guidance to out-of-towners by directing them to only those areas - city or suburb - which best meet their requirements for cost, location and transportation. Detailed information on schools, recreation facilities, shopping, etc. in over 45 communities helps the home seeker to determine quickly where he wants to live.

When the actual search begins, Baird & Warner again gives something special in the way of service. Tours of the communities that interest the transferred employee are conducted by a local Baird & Warner expert. The transferred employee will see almost limitless examples of homes in every price range, size and architectural design.

For the transferred employee, RESET means big savings in time, energy and effort. For the employee's company, RESET means a happier transferred employee who is able to get down to the business of establishing himself more quickly in his new position.

A TRADITION IN REAL ESTATE SINCE 1855

Welcome to our new, exclusive 1/10% Mortgage Interest Rate

We've broken with the traditional 1/4% increments for variations in home loan interest rates. Our new 1/10% progressive rate structure will provide a new flexibility to assure home buyers of the most equitable rate at all times. And it can provide considerable savings over the term of a mortgage depending upon the original down payment. It's just another example of Bell Savings' constant effort to make home ownership easier and more enjoyable. Bell is known for making the best possible commitment on the best possible terms. With careful attention to the details that can reduce the immediate cash outlay for home buyers. And offering such items as pre-payment privileges and open end provisions tailored to your needs.

ISN'T IT TIME YOU HEADED FOR THE WARMTH OF A BETTER HOME?

If so, see one of these professionals.

The warm and wonderful family times you spend in the comfort and convenience of a better home are remembered all through life... Back yard barbecues in summer... The first flowers of spring... Get together after the "big" game... Decorating for the holidays... And, the special feeling of accomplishment that comes with knowing your family has the happiness, security and prestige they deserve. These qualified men service that special feeling by helping you buy the home you want to own.
